

Bluebird by Charles Bukowski

there's a bluebird in my heart that wants to get out
but I'm too tough for him, I say, stay in there, I'm not going to let anybody see
you.

there's a bluebird in my heart that
wants to get out
but I pour whiskey on him and inhale cigarette smoke
and the whores and the bartenders and the grocery clerks
never know that
he's in there.

there's a bluebird in my heart that
wants to get out
but I'm too tough for him,
I say,
stay down, do you want to mess
me up?
you want to screw up the works?
you want to blow my book sales in Europe?
there's a bluebird in my heart that
wants to get out
but I'm too clever, I only let him out at night sometimes when everybody's asleep.
I say, I know that you're there, so don't be
sad.
then I put him back,
but he's singing a little in there, I haven't quite let him die
and we sleep together like that
with our secret pact
and it's nice enough to make a man
weep, but I don't weep, do
you?
